

ASHVILLE NEWS – NOVEMBER 1, 2016,

ROSE M. JAMISON, 740-497-5355

Happy birthday to all of you beautiful November babies. My two grandsons, Kyle Forson and Caden Hossfeld, Sandi Oliver, Ellen Starkey, Sue Binion, Belva Morrison, Carol Blaney, Charles Noggle, Rodger Southward, Andra Magill, Shirley Norris, Rita Rader, Becky Serpette. Fred Call celebrated his 91st birthday in October.

Hope your Halloween was a 'howling success'. Many creative costumes were judged and awards given at the annual parade and judging at the park. Dave Rainey announced the first, second and third place winners in the age categories. The awards were presented by the 2016 Ashville 4th of July queen and her court. Everyone enjoyed fresh glazed donuts and cold apple cider. The rain seemed to dampen the enthusiasm of the trick or treaters. Overall, it was a great day.

I often wonder, as I drive through small, dusty towns what in the world do people do here to spend their time. Then, I check my calendar and see that I have lots of things to do. For instance, Celebrating Seniors November 10; the Ark Encounter Day Bus trip November 3rd and South Bloomfield UMC's annual turkey and all the trimmings Harvest Dinner Saturday, November 5 in their new fellowship hall. Carry-outs 3:30 to 4:30 and sit down dinner 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Reservations are not necessary.

Zion United Methodist Church, corner of Powell and Plum Streets are serving their delicious pork chop dinner on November 11, 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Also they will offer hot dogs and sausage sandwiches, and bean and noodle soups. A table filled with homemade baked goods and egg noodles will entice you to take some home for later. Lots of white elephant goodies will be there.

The Asheville American Legion Auxiliary Unit #730 veterans appreciation Holiday Dinner will be at the Cherry Street Diner, Friday, November 11 at 6:30 p.m. RSVP to Tina Bobek, 740-983-2489 or 740-207-5029 by November 7.

There is the all-you-can eat chicken and noodle dinner and quilt show at Scioto Chapel UMC on Saturday, November 12 from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. The price is $8.00 for adults and $5.00 for children. The “Golden Needles Quilters” quilts will be displayed in the church sanctuary.

Lots of things going on in December. The Asheville Ole Time Christmas celebration is Sunday, December 4th. Note the change: Santa will not be at the Railroad Station. He will be at the closed shelter house in the park from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. More details in a later Asheville News.

There’s always fun activities at the Pickaway Senior Center. Marge Foreman and I, both October birthday babies, enjoyed a delicious roast beef dinner at the October Fellowship meeting. Birthdays and anniversaries eat free. The Christian Chicks Kitchen Band provided us with great entertainment. The November Fellowship meeting is November 17. Turkey and dressing meal and entertainment by Rev. William and Kathryn Hill.

If you would like to donate items to the election day bake sale, drop them off at the Center November 7 or by 9 a.m. November 8.

Senior Center veterans will be honored with a pinning ceremony November 11 at 11:30 a.m and lunch at noon. All who plan to attend, please RSVP to the Center, 740-474-8831 by November 4.

Flyers on the February 2017 Puerto Vallarta all-inclusive getaway; the June 2017 New York City and the Statue of Liberty tour; the August 2017 Branson Show Extravaganza; and the October 2017 National Parks and Canyons of the Southwest trip are now available at the Center.

There will be no election day dinner at the Village Chapel UMC.

It's gone! The north Long Street Savings Bank is demolished, making way for the brand new bank under construction.

Our community has lost family members and friends. Rosan Ward passed away on October 6. Rosan was the daughter of the late Edward and Bessie (Horsely) McGlone. She was preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Larry Ward. Delores "Dee" Ebert, died October 9. Preceded in death by her parents, Dwight and Mabel Grubb and her brother, Charlie Grubb. G. Ann Rathburn, 97, passed away October 18. She is survived by son Larry L. (Janet) Rathburn. Leslie U. Cline, 74, died October 25, 2016. Les is survived by wife, Ethel Cline. Dutch Moss, 94, Pickaway Manor, passed away October 26, 2016. Preceded in death by husband, Charles Moss and son, Charles "Toad" Moss.

Get well wishes to Charlie Morrison who has been in the hospital. And to Marge Foreman who injured her shoulder in a fall.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
